

Jerusalem, East-West Fusion

Walk along Jerusalem's unseen borderline – once a no-man-zone, now an open barrier. Stop by scarred landmarks that have survived wars, handovers and development, yet bearing an “Old Times” aroma. Finish at St. George Anglican Cathedral, where East-West fusion is at home.

Highlights

- Explore the City Hall, where reality faces Jerusalem
- Walk along the French façade, ever on the borderline
- Discover Musrara – from Upper class to Black Panthers and back
- Stop at Mandelbaum Gate, the local “Checkpoint Charlie”
- Visit St. George Cathedral, where English tradition meets Palestinian heritage
